WITNESSETH

GRANTOR is a United States Senator for the State of California. To avoid any conflict of interest, or appearance of any such conflict, which may arise from her duties and powers in such office and any other office to which she may subsequently be appointed to the extent provided for by section 102(f)(4)(A) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 (Pub. L. 95-521, as amended) (hereinafter referred to as the "Act"), Grantor hereby amends and restates the Dianne Feinstein 1991 Trust, as amended December 28, 1993, to be administered in accordance with the requirements of the Act, which shall become effective on the date this agreement bears.

The Trustee is an eligible financial institution, as specified in Section 102(f)(3)(A) who meets the requirements of such section.

Grantor, therefore, hereby delivers to the Trustee, and the Trustee hereby acknowledges receipt of, the property encompassed in the Dianne Feinstein 1991 Trust, as amended December 28, 1993, subject to the provisions of this Trust and the Act, and other applicable Federal laws.

The primary purpose of this Trust is to entrust to the Trustee decisions as to when and to what extent the original assets of the Trust are to be sold or disposed of and in what investments the proceeds of sale are to be reinvested, without any participation in, or knowledge of, such decisions by any interested person. Accordingly, the Grantor and the Trustee agree as follows:

FIRST:

(A) This Trust shall terminate upon the first to occur of the following --

(1) Grantor's ceasing for any reason to serve as a U.S. Senator and in any other position to which she may have been subsequently appointed or elected in the Federal Government and Grantor thereafter giving Trustee written notice directing that this Trust be terminated; or (2) Grantor's death or incompetence. The period between the date of this agreement and the termination of the Trust shall be called the "Trust Term."

(B) Notwithstanding Paragraph (A) of this Article FIRST, this Trust agreement may in addition be terminated through revocation.

SECOND:

The Trustee shall administer this trust in accordance with the requirements of the Act and, in the exercise of its authority and discretion to manage and control the assets of this Trust shall not consult or notify any interested party.

FOURTH:

The Trustee shall not knowingly or negligently disclose to the public or to any interested party any information as to the acquisition, retention, or disposition of any particular securities or other Trust property; except that, the Trustee shall promptly notify the Grantor, the U.S. Senate Select Committee on Ethics, and the Secretary of the Senate, Office of Public Records when the holdings of a particular asset transferred to the Trust by any interested party have been completely disposed of or when the value of that asset becomes less than $1,000.

FIFTH:

The income tax return of the Trust shall be prepared by the Trustee or his designee, and such return and any information relating thereto (other than the Trust income summarized in appropriate categories necessary to complete an interested party's tax return), shall not be disclosed to the public or to any interested party. To effectuate the provisions of this Article FIFTH, the Trustee shall use its best efforts to provide the interested party, promptly after the close of each taxable year of the Trust during the Trust Term, with that information concerning the Trust, including information on income, expenses, capital gains and capital losses, which is necessary for the interested party to prepare and file tax returns required by the laws of the United States and the laws of any State, district or political subdivision; provided however, that in no event shall the Trustee disclose publicly or to any interested party any information whatsoever which might identify the securities or other property which comprise the assets of the Trust or identify the securities or other property which have been sold from the assets of the Trust.

(2) To the notification of the Trustee of a law or regulation subsequently applicable to the reporting individual which prohibits the interested party from holding an asset, which notification directs that the asset not be held by the Trust, or

(3) To directions to the Trustee to sell all of an asset initially placed in the Trust by an interested party which in the determination of the Grantor creates a conflict of interest or the appearance thereof due to the subsequent assumption of duties by the Grantor (but any such direction is not required).

EIGHTH:

The interested parties shall not take any action to obtain, and shall take appropriate action to avoid receiving, information with respect to the holdings of, and the sources of income of, the Trust, including obtaining a copy of any Trust tax return filed by the Trustee or any information relating thereto, except for the reports and information specified in Article SIXTH of this Trust.

If _____ does not survive Grantor, Grantor's remaining trust property shall be distributed among the then living descendants of _____, per stirpes; provided, however, that if a trust is then being administered for the benefit of a descendant of _____ under any trust established by _____, either alone or with _____ (hereinafter "_____"), such descendant's share shall not be distributed outright, but instead shall be added to and made a part of such descendant's trust, to be held, administered, and distributed in accordance with the terms and provisions of such trust except that the principal of Grantor's trust property distributed to such descendant's trust shall remain in trust until such descendant shall have attained the age of thirty-five (35) years of age notwithstanding anything in the terms of the descendant's trust to the contrary.

The distribution of trust property to Grantor's heirs, for purposes of this paragraph, shall be determined by the laws of descent and distribution for intestate estates in the State of California relating to the succession of separate property not acquired from a predeceased spouse as such laws are in effect at the time of any distribution under this paragraph, except that, for purposes of this paragraph, Grantor's spouse shall be deemed to have predeceased Grantor without surviving descendants.
