The Honorable Nancy Erickson
Secretary of the Senate
S-312 U.S. Capitol Building
Washington D.C. 20510-0012

Attn: Office of Public Records

Please include a copy of this letter with each of my financial disclosure reports from 2004 through 2010.

My wife, Leslee B. Alexander, owns 17.1226% interest in her family's Texas corporation, the Starboard Corporation. Since 2003, I have reported her ownership of this interest and relied on the Starboard Corporation to provide my accountants with a list of underlying assets of the corporation so that I could also list them on my annual financial report.

While preparing my 2011 financial disclosure, my accountants inquired of the Starboard Corporation whether the list of underlying assets was up-to-date. On May 10, 2012, the corporation notified my accountants that one such asset had not been included on the list - a piece of commercial real estate in San Antonio purchased by the Starboard Corporation in 2004.

My accountants say that this property had not been reported to them previously. As a result, it had not been included in my financial disclosure reports filed from 2004 through 2010.

From 2004 to the present, the San Antonio property should be included with the other underlying assets of the Starboard Corporation (all of which have been previously reported) among our non-publicly traded assets and unearned income sources. The "valuation of assets" for the San Antonio property was $250,001 - $500,000 for each year from 2004 through 2010. Finally, the omission did not affect the accuracy of the "amount or of type of income" from the Starboard Corporation reported on any of my annual financial disclosures.

Sincerely,

Lamar Alexander
