Dear Secretary Adams:

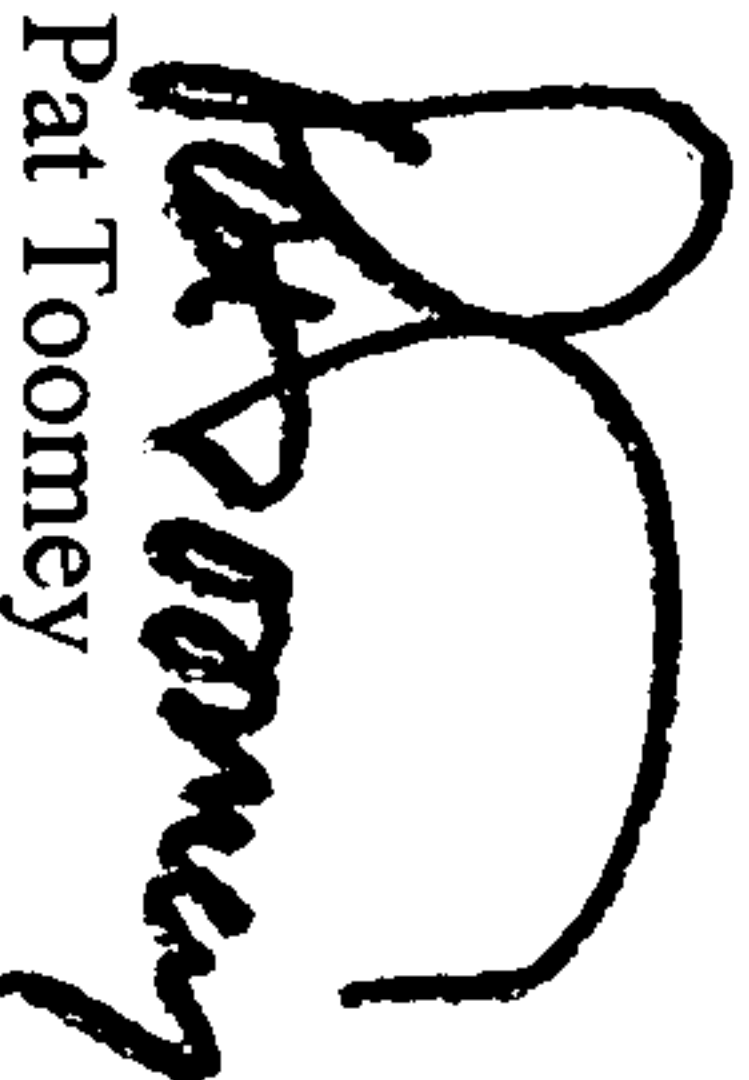

On May 14, 2014 and May 15, 2015, I filed with the Office of Public Records my personal financial disclosure reports for the years 2013 and 2014, respectively. It has come to my attention that an asset was an inadvertently omitted from these reports.

This asset is a U.S. Treasury Note (Inflation Indexed) that matures on July 15, 2018. It was inadvertently omitted from my reports for the years 2013 and 2014, but was disclosed in my financial disclosure reports for the years 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2016, and 2017 as an asset in an IRA retirement account. In my report for the year 2017, this asset is listed in Part 3 of the report as asset # 2.13. I have listed in the chart below information about this asset for the years 2013 and 2014.

Year	Account	Owner	Value	Income
2013	Morgan Stanley Traditional IRA 2	Self	$50,001 -$100,000	None (or less than $201)
2014	Morgan Stanley Traditional IRA 2	Self	$50,001 -$100,000	None (or less than $201)

I am filing this letter to ensure my financial disclosure reports for the years 2013 and 2014 are complete. I regret any inconvenience that the omission of this asset may have caused.

Sincerely,

Pat Toomey
U.S. Senator
