Re: Re: Senator Elizabeth Warren

Dear Madame Secretary:

We are writing on behalf of Senator Elizabeth Warren to file an amendment to her annual public financial disclosure ("PFD") reports for calendar years 2012 - 2014 and her candidate PFD report filed in 2011

Part 9 of her PFD reports for calendar years 2012 - 2013 and her candidate PFD report filed in 2011 should each be amended to include the following agreements:

Date	Parties Involved	Type	Status and Terms
April 2002	Perscus Books Group, New York, New York	Royalty Agreement	Royalties for book, "The Two-Income Trap."
May 1999	Beard Books, Washington, D.C.	Royalty Agreement	Royalties for book, "As We Forgive Our Debtors."

Senator Warren did not receive income in excess of $200 in connection with either of these agreements in calendar years 2012-2013, nor did she receive income in excess of $200 in connection with these agreements during the relevant reporting period for her candidate PFD report filed in 2011

Additionally, Part 9 of her PFD reports for calendar years 2012-2014 and her candidate PFD report filed in 2011 should each be amended to include the following agreement:

Date	Parties Involved	Type	Status and Terms
April 2004	Free Press (now Simon & Schuster), New York, New York	Royalty Agreement	Royalties for book, “All Your Worth.”

Senator Warren did not receive income in excess of $200 in connection with this agreement in calendar years 2012-2014, nor did she receive income in excess of $200 in connection with this agreement during the relevant reporting period for her candidate PFD report filed in 2011.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have further questions. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Marc E. Elias
