Additional Information Regarding Periodic Transaction Reports

Dear Secretary Adams:

Reports filed today with your office. This letter provides information about the am ended and additional Periodic Transactions annual report and my spouse's transactions on the Periodic Transaction Reports filed throughout the year. Today's filings reconcile these inadvertent discrepancies. discrepancies In preparing the calendar year 2018 were discovered between my spouse's Annual Financial Disclosure Report, several transactions disclosed in Part IV of the and five additional transactions were reported that were unintentionally omitted throughout the transactions in addition to those that were amended. The amended reports filed with your office today include all the correctly reported In total, nine transactions were amended, them correctly reported once on the September report. The four removed duplicate entries are: Transaction Reports. The amended October report removes these duplicate transactions, leaving Four transactions were reported twice on both the September and October 2018 Periodic
